RACINE (January 2014) Effective January 1, 2014, Elizabeth Powell and Jill Heller assumed leadership as Co-Executive Directors of the Racine Community Foundation (RCF).

Powell served as a member of the Foundation board for 10 years, most recently as Board president. Her professional experience is in the area of trust administration and, according to current Board president, Steen Sanderhoff, “Liz has deep roots in the Racine community and her personal dedication to volunteer community service is extensive.” Powell will oversee the Foundation’s grant-making and community relations activities, act as liaison with the finance and investment committees and manage office operations.

Heller has been a member of the Foundation board for the last 3 years, most recently serving as secretary. With degrees in both law and business, she has 20 years of experience in both the for-profit and non-profit sectors, including significant fund development expertise. Heller’s primary duties will include oversight of the Foundation’s marketing, fund development and donor relations activities. Sanderhoff said, “We are confident in Liz and Jill’s ability to guide the Foundation to a strong future.”

Additionally, the RCF has relocated to new offices at 1135 Warwick Way in Mount Pleasant. It is believed that this more central location will allow the Foundation to better serve the entire county and offer a more efficient and welcoming location for staff and visitors.
